Patient Information

Authorization: Payment is expected at the time of service. The practitioner reserves the right to refuse services if payment has not been received prior to the start of the session. If there is financial hardship, the client will discuss this with the therapist in advance to services being rendered, or as soon as such arises within the treatment process. The above information is warranted to be true. I agree to be responsible for the charges incurred. If insurance is available, I authorize release of information for the purpose of filing claims, and also authorize payments of benefits directly to A New Outlook Recovery Services and/or Colorado TMS Services.

Cancellation of appointments must be made 24 hours in advance to avoid a $150 failed appointment charge. If the client dose not notify of impending late arrival and fails to show up for an appointment within the first 20 minutes for talk therapy or 10 minutes for medication management of the schedule session, it will be considered a no show and the client's card on file will be charged accordingly for the full session rate. Insurance companies do not reimburse clients for missed sessions. Illness and emergencies will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. This fee is due prior to the next appointment.

Office and Appointment Policies

First and foremost, welcome! We look forward to working alongside you and your loved ones during your counseling experience. Below are a few highlights to assist you with your first appointment.

1. Before the initial appointment, print and complete the following forms. Please fill them out in their entirety. Read them carefully to be informed of what you are signing. Please have them ready ahead of your scheduled appointment time. Should you not be able to bring these Intake Forms with you, please contact us at 303-798-2196, prior to your arrival and the forms will be waiting for you in the reception area to fill out.
2. Please check in and wait in the reception area until we come for you at your scheduled appointment time. There are several therapists in session throughout our hallway during the day. Doing this ensures profession respect and privacy for their clients.
3. Payments/Co-Pays are collected at the beginning of each session. Checks, cash, and credit cards are accepted.
4. All sessions are with therapists are forty-five minutes in length. Initial appointments with Dr. Arshad William, MD or Michelle Quisenberry, PMHNP, RN, APN are 45-60 minutes in length and follow-up appointments are 25 minutes in length. A wrap-up typically begins a couple of minutes before the end of our time together. This is usual and customary and abides with the ethical standards of the therapeutic process and guidelines. Appointments begin at the scheduled time. If a client arrives late, the session will be that much shorter. Conversely, if we are running late, the session will begin when the client enters the counseling office. If patients for Dr. Arshad William, MD or Michelle Quisenberry, PMHNP, RN, APN are more than 10 minutes late, your appointment will be canceled and a fee of $150 will be charged to the patient. Therapy appointments are held for twenty minutes past your scheduled time. If a patient is more than 20 minutes late, the appointment will be canceled and a fee of $150 will be charged to the client, not the insurance company. If a client is a "No Show" or does not cancel the appointment 24 hours prior, the client, not the insurance company, is responsible for the payment of $150.
5. The National Board of Certified Counselors (NBCC) prohibits counselors from "friending" or communicating with clients through all social media.

Again, welcome to our practice. We look forward to seeing you soon.

Clients are entitled to receive information about the methods of therapy, the techniques used; the duration of therapy (if known) and the fee structure. A client may seek a second opinion from another therapist or may terminate therapy at any time. In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy between client and therapist is inappropriate and should be reported to the department of regulatory agencies: Department of Regulatory Agencies, 1560 Broadway, Suite 1340, Denver, Colorado 80202. Phone: 303.894.7766

What You Can Expect from Counseling: If you sincerely desire to work on your concerns and conflicts with yourself or others and believe that you have the capacity to do so, then we can work effectively together in counseling. A counselor cannot resolve problems. It is our responsibility to help you identify your beliefs and feelings, conflicts, and challenge inconsistencies, explore new choices and be supportive of your efforts to make changes that you want to make in your behaviors, feelings or responses to others. It is important that you prepare prior to each session by completing any assigned therapy tasks, or "homework", between sessions and be prepared to discuss.

Privileged Communication: Generally speaking, the information provided by and to a client during therapy session is legally confidential. There are exceptions to the general rule of legal confidentiality. The information provided by the client during therapy session is legally confidential, except as provided in section 12.43.218 and except for certain other legal issues. These include: a) Potential danger to self or others, b) Notes or summary of care is Court ordered, c) Clients of military status may be more susceptible to open information to reach the therapist in the future for services if needed.

Appointments: Therapy sessions are usually made on a regular schedule, although sometimes more visits will be beneficial. The therapy hour is 45 minutes, and we try to stay on schedule. If you suspect you may be late, please call ahead, as the session will be canceled after 20 minutes, and will be considered a failed appointment. Medication management appointments are 25 minutes and will be cancelled after 10 minutes, and will be considered a failed appointment. In the event that there is not a scheduled termination of the counseling relationship and the therapist has not seen the client in the past 90 days (for therapy clients) or 120 days (for medication management clients), the therapist will contact the client via their preferred method of contact once to inquire if the client wishes to continue the therapeutic relationship. This message will advise of the timeframe for scheduling to remain an active client and will explain how to reach the therapist in the future for services if needed.

If no appointment is scheduled within the designated timeframe as identified or agreed upon, the client's chart will be closed. This action terminates the therapeutic relationship. Any unpaid balances on the client's account will be billed to the card on file, regardless of how termination arises Cancellations: When appointments are forgotten or canceled without a 24-hour notification, the client, not the insurance company, is responsible to pay the fee of $150.00.

Cancellations: When appointments are forgotten or canceled without a 24-hour notification, the client, not the insurance company, is responsible to pay the fee of $150.00. Clients who are chronically absent will be referred to other agencies. Accounts go to collections at 90-days past due. In the event of office closures due to inclement weather, you will be contacted either by the office administrator or your therapist via your preferred method of contact in order to cancel and reschedule your appointment.

Confidentiality: Your sessions are considered legally as privileged communications and are therefore protected as private with the exception referred to above or when using insurance, confidentiality is in a manner with your PPO or HMO agreement. If you need to have records made available to other professionals, a Release of Information Form will need to be signed. All written information provided to the courts OR other sources require notice ahead of time and a $75.00 per page fee will be charged. Anytime the therapist is called to court, a $2000.00 retainer fee is required up front. The fee for court is $225.00 per hour which includes travel time as well as time spent at the court.

Emergencies: In emergency situations or after hours, call 911 or go to a hospital emergency room.

Payment: At this time, we accept cash, check, or major credit cards. Payment/co-payment is due before each counseling session begins.

MEDICATION REFILL POLICY

It is your responsibility to notify the office in a timely manner when refills are necessary. Approval of your refill may take up to three to five business days so please be courteous and do not wait to call. If you use a mail order pharmacy, please contact us fourteen (14) days before your medication is due to run out.

• Medication refills will only be addressed during regular office hours (Monday-Friday 9am-4pm). The urgent care staff will not return any phone calls regarding refills. Please notify your provider on the next business day if you find yourself out of medication after hours.

• No prescriptions will be refilled on Saturday, Sunday, or Holidays.

• Some medications require prior authorization. Depending on your insurance this process may involve several steps by both your pharmacy and your provider. The providers and pharmacies are familiar with this process and will handle the prior authorization as quickly as possible. Neither the pharmacy nor the provider can guarantee that your insurance company will approve the medication. Please check with your pharmacy or your insurance company for updates.

• It is important to keep your scheduled appointment to ensure that you receive timely refills. Repeated no shows or cancellations will result in a denial of refills. All prescriptions require a follow up appointment every 4 to 8 weeks.

• If you have any questions regarding medications, please discuss these during your appointment. If for any reason you feel your medication needs to be adjusted or changed, please contact us immediately.

• New symptoms or events require a clinic appointment. Your provider will not diagnose or treat over the phone or portal.

• Stimulant medications for ADD/ADHD are controlled substances and refills cannot be called into a pharmacy, per state law and regulations. Be sure to call the pharmacy 2-3 business days before you are out of medication. If you are calling the office directly to request refills, please provide the following information:

- Full legal name with spelling
- Date of birth
- Name of medication and dosage
- Name and number for the pharmacy
- Phone number where you can be reached directly

Please allow 5 business days for all refill request to handled.
It is your responsibility, as a patient at our practice, to be aware of the status of your remaining medication.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to reach out to our office. This policy is effective as of the date of this correspondence. We appreciate your time and understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dr. Arshad William, M.D. 8/3/2020
